“Behavior Management Training” and “Behavior Therapy”:

Manual and research based therapies for ADHD related problems lasting 10-20 sessions that can be performed by a qualified therapist. These treatments, though helpful with ADHD, are usually less effective than medications. But when combined with medications, these therapies may improve some difficulties (such as oppositional or aggressive behavior in ADHD) more than treating with medications alone.

The principle elements of these treatments are:

- reviewing information about the nature of ADHD
- learning to attend carefully to both misbehavior and when child complies
- establishing a “token economy,” like sticker chart rewards
- using time out effectively
- managing non-compliant behavior in public settings
- using a daily school report card
- anticipating future misconduct
