Value Statement

All children, teens and families are safe and healthy, thrive, and reach their greatest potential as they define it. We work together with communities, hospital staff and partners to ensure that the resources, programs and policies we provide address social, cultural, emotional and environmental factors that promote health and wellness.

Framing Guidelines

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Accomplished through:</th>
<th>Empowers:</th>
<th>Focused on:</th>
<th>Integrated in:</th>
<th>Linked to:</th>
<th>Optimizes our role as:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Mutually beneficial partnerships</td>
<td>Children Teens Families Providers Communities Government</td>
<td>Population health, health inequities, identified gaps and building on strengths</td>
<td>Patient Care Community Research Education Communication</td>
<td>Mission Vision Strategic Plan CPI Philosophy</td>
<td>Advocates Educators Researchers Experts Caregivers</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Community Benefit Priorities 2016-2019

- Healthy Eating, Active Living, Food Security
- Coordinated Care
- Suicide and Violence Prevention
- Mental and Behavioral Health

Sustaining Community Benefit Programs for Community Health

- Access
- Adolescent Health
- Unintentional Injury Prevention
- Programs and Services for Children with Special Needs
- Parent and Family Education and Resources

Cross-cutting themes to improve community health across diverse populations include: Access, Care Coordination, Equity, Population Health, Prevention and Social Justice.