

Washington's Mental Health Referral Service for Children and Teens

4 Important Things to Know About our Service

Families are connected to mental and behavioral health providers

We provide a free service to any Washington family seeking outpatient providers who have availability and accept your child's insurance.

Families are served as quickly as possible

Our service strives to connect with families in real-time or to return communication within 48 hours. After calling or submitting an online form, families schedule an intake with a referral specialist. Approximately 2 weeks after their intake, families will receive information for one or two recommended providers. We are committed to providing efficient and measured referrals to treating providers. Survey data shows that 60% of families have scheduled or attended an appointment within 2 weeks of receiving our recommendations.

Families give the service high marks

A family satisfaction survey found that respondents were very likely to recommend the Mental Health Service for Children and Teens to others who need mental and behavioral health care (4.9 out of 5). They felt the service met their needs (4.7 out of 5) and were very satisfied (4.7 out of 5).

Interpreter Services

To call our program using an interpreter, call 1(866)583-1527. Listen for your preferred language and select the number provided. You will be placed on a brief hold while an interpreter is selected. Once an interpreter is on the line, ask them to call our program directly at 833-303-5437.

More about the service:

- Families can access the service by calling 833-303-5437, Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Pacific time, to connect with a referral specialist.
- All healthcare providers are encouraged to direct families to our service.
- Help spread the word about this unique new service for families!
- Washington Healthcare Authority funds the referral service and Seattle Children's operates it.

