Regional Pediatric Nursing Grand Rounds

Integration of Equity & Anti-Racism Into Pediatric Palliative Care.

Presented by: Arika Patneaude, MSW, LICSW, APHSW-C & Jennifer Kett, MD
Thursday, November 3, 2022 11 am - 2 pm PST via Webex

Program Objectives - The learner will be able to:
- Describe overall equity principals for pediatric palliative care.
- Describe how principles of palliative care communication overlap with equity principles.
- Provide specific examples from a pediatric palliative care team.
- Describe common pitfalls of equity work in pediatric palliative care.

Arika Patneaude is a Licensed Independent Clinical Social Worker (LICSW), and an Ethnic Minority Mental Health Specialist (EMMHS). She has worked extensively in social services in Seattle since 1992, including adult mental health, homeless housing services, pediatric medical social work including solid organ transplant, grief and bereavement and pediatric palliative care. Ms. Patneaude has been an invited lecturer and panel member since 2010 on such topics as supporting patients and families at the end of life, cultural humility, completing culturally appropriate assessments, health equity, and providing grief and bereavement services.

Dr. Kett is the Interim Division Chief and Medical Director for Pediatric Bioethics and Palliative Care at Seattle Children's Hospital and the University of Washington. She is board-certified in Pediatrics, Neonatal-Perinatal Medicine, as well as Hospice and Palliative Medicine. Dr. Kett holds a Master's Degree in Bioethics and Humanities from the University of Washington.
