

Seattle Children's Adaptive Sports and Recreation Listing

Seattle Children's has compiled a list of adaptive recreation activities within Puget Sound area in an effort to promote the continued healing and well being of our patients and community. The resources gathered here are intended for individuals with physical disabilities that may require adaptation and/or support to engage in meaningful leisure experiences. For questions or to suggest updates, please e-mail adaptiverecreation@seattlechildrens.org.

Disclaimer: This list was compiled to help promote physical activity and recreation. The individual programs have not been vetted or formally reviewed by Seattle Children's Hospital.
